Unrealized depreciation of investments for the six-month period ended June 30, 2021 was $1,039,540 and unrealized appreciation of investments from the commencement of operations on February 20, 2020 to December 31, 2020 was $849,372.

Recent Developments

The two largest sectors in the Partnership's asset mix are:

- 1) Gold and precious metals, and
- 2) Electric metals which include copper, zinc, cobalt, lithium and graphite.

2020 was a consolidation year for commodities therefore it is expected that commodity sectors will generate strength in the years to come. The growing strength of the global economy should ensure this trend continues well into 2021. Notably, the mining industry remains mired with low equity valuations (a reflection of the high cost of capital for the sector), which constitutes a divergence between fundamentals and equity values. Low equity valuations are attractive. It's believed that investments into the mining sector will benefit as equity valuations rise to reflect the fundamentals within the sector.

Merger and acquisition activity should also increase as this scenario unfolds, with larger producers seeking to acquire smaller explorers. As a result, the Partnership is bullish on the mining sector based on low valuations and increasing consolidation.

Gold and Precious Metals

The Partnership continues to seek investment opportunities in mining companies that are about to transition from exploration companies to producing companies. Production provides cashflow, reducing the need for equity financing, setting the stage for rising equity valuations. Small and midcap exploration companies remain undervalued and provide excellent acquisition opportunities for large producing companies, which need to exploit new mineral discoveries.

2021 Semi-Annual Management Report of Fund Performance

Base and Electric Metals

Demand for base and electric metals continues to be driven by the growing strength of the global economy. China and the United States continue to be the largest consumers. Growing sales of hybrid and electric cars continue to drive demand for these materials, which include copper, zinc, cobalt, and lithium. Graphite remains a factor in this mix but can be a less attractive investment due to its relatively high costs domestically.

Demand for improved infrastructure should increase prices for steel, coking coal and various other additives. Infrastructure spending programs in Canada and the US also contribute to a better outlook for base metals.

(2) The portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Manager manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Partnership buying and selling all the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher a portfolio turnover rate is in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by the Partnership in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gain in the period. There is not necessarily a relationship between turnover rate and the performance of a portfolio.

<sup>(3)</sup> The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as a percentage of average net assets during the period.
